The activity groups are color coded, making it easier for you to match the program or event to the dimension of wellness.

The 6 dimensions of wellness include:

Physical – for strength, balance and overall fitness

Emotional – to cope with life’s challenges at any age

Intellectual – because your mind doesn’t stop growing

Social – ensuring friendship, companionship and sharing

Spiritual – adding depth to every day

Vocational – with acknowledgement of your talent, experience and capabilities

Meet & Greet with Theodore Roosevelt

Wednesday, April 24 at 4:00pm
in the Auditorium

Joe Wiegand is the world's premiere Theodore Roosevelt impersonator, and as an actor and historian, his portrayals of Theodore Roosevelt have been enjoyed by audiences in all fifty states and internationally. Joe Wiegand is a political science graduate of The University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. In 2008, Joe, traveled across America in celebration of Theodore Roosevelt's 150th birthday and the final centennial year of TR's historic presidency. Joe has been featured as President Roosevelt in "The Men Who Built America" on the History Channel, served as the model for the newest TR sculpture at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City, and has a feature role in "National Parks Adventure" an IMAX film about our national parks. Today, the Wiegands live in Medora, North Dakota, where Joe works for the Theodore Roosevelt Medora Foundation. Joe is a thirty-one year member of Rotary International and a member of the National Association for Interpretation. Joe's performance tour is highlighted in summer by a daily matinee in Medora, gateway to Theodore Roosevelt National Park and future home of Theodore Roosevelt Presidential Library.

LIBRARY NEWS

Magazines and The Wall Street Journal can be found in the Terraces Library. Among the magazines you will find: The Atlantic, Birds and Blooms, The Economist, Popular Mechanics and Brain & Life. National Geographic is often available, too. The newspaper and magazines are to be read in the library, not in your home since they are enjoyed by many residents.
